Another Royalist Rumor Disposed Of.

The following letter received by yesterday's mail explains itself, and refutes the usual royalist rumor set affoat, that Mr. Thurston had been rejected by the Washington government:

A letter from Williams, Dimond & Co., dated June 7, states: "Since writing you, yesterday, we have learned by press dispatches that Mr. Thurston presented his credentials to the Department of State, and, although Mr. Thurston had instructed to send all communications to him in peat your message to him in Washington."
